

ARCTURUS THERAPEUTICS LTD.

CHARTER OF THE NOMINATING AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

COMPOSITION

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Arcturus Therapeutics Ltd., an Israeli company (the “Company”), shall consist of at least two members of the Board. No Committee member shall be an employee of the Company and each member shall be free from any relationship that would interfere with the exercise of his or her independent judgment, as determined by the Board, in accordance with the applicable independence requirements under the Listing Rules (the “Listing Rules”) of The Nasdaq Stock Market (“Nasdaq”). The members of the Committee and the Committee chairperson shall be appointed by the Board. To the extent that the Board is then required to include external directors under the Israeli Companies Law, 5759-1999 (the “Companies Law”), at least one such external director shall serve on the Committee.

STATEMENT OF POLICY

The purpose of the Committee shall be to: (i) oversee all aspects of the Company’s corporate governance functions on behalf of the Board; (ii) make recommendations to the Board regarding corporate governance issues; (iii) identify, review and evaluate candidates to serve as directors of the Company and review and evaluate incumbent directors; (iv) serve as a focal point for communication between such candidates, non-committee directors and the Company’s management; (v) recommend for nomination by the Board and election by the shareholders candidates to serve on the Board; and (vi) make other recommendations to the Board regarding affairs relating to the directors of the Company, including director compensation (subject to approval by the compensation committee of the Board to the extent required under Israeli law).

OPERATING PRINCIPLES AND PROCESSES

In fulfilling its function and responsibilities, the Committee should give due consideration to the following operating principles and processes:

- Communication – Regular and meaningful contact throughout the year with the Board, committee chairpersons, members of senior management and independent professional advisors to the Board and its various committees, as applicable, is viewed as important for strengthening the Committee’s knowledge of relevant current and prospective corporate governance issues.

- Committee Education/Orientation – Developing with management and participating in a process for systematic review of important corporate governance issues and trends in corporate governance practices that could potentially impact the Company and that shall enhance the effectiveness of the Committee.

AUTHORITY

- Resources – The Committee shall be authorized to access such internal and external resources as the Committee deems necessary or appropriate to fulfill its defined responsibilities, including engagement of independent counsel, consultants and other professional advisors, as well as executive search firms to help identify director candidates. The Committee shall have sole authority to approve fees, costs and other terms of engagement of such outside resources. The Committee shall have the authority to perform such other functions, and shall have such powers, as may be necessary or appropriate in the efficient and lawful discharge of its responsibilities hereunder.

RESPONSIBILITIES

The operation of the Committee shall be subject to the provisions of the Articles of Association of the Company and the Companies Law, each as in effect from time to time. The Committee shall have the full power and authority to carry out the following primary responsibilities or to delegate such power and authority to one or more subcommittees of the Committee:

- Director Nominations – The Committee has the responsibility of identifying, reviewing and evaluating candidates to serve on the Company's Board, including consideration of any potential conflicts of interest as well as applicable independence and experience requirements. The Committee shall also have the primary responsibility for reviewing, evaluating and considering the recommendation for nomination of incumbent directors for re-election to the Board, as well as monitoring the size of the Board. The Committee shall also recommend to the Board for selection candidates to the Board. The Committee shall also have the power and authority to consider recommendations for Board nominees and proposals submitted by the Company's shareholders and to establish any policies, requirements, criteria and procedures, including policies and procedures to facilitate shareholder communications with the Board of Directors, to recommend to the Board appropriate action on any such proposal or recommendation and to make any disclosures required by applicable law in the course of exercising its authority.
- Management and Board Assessment – The Committee shall periodically review, discuss and assess the performance of management and the Board, including Board committees, seeking input from senior management, the full Board and others. The assessment shall include evaluation of the Board's contribution as a whole and effectiveness in serving the best interests of the Company and its shareholders, specific areas in which the Board and/or management believe contributions could be improved, and overall Board composition and makeup, including the reelection of current Board members. The factors to be considered shall include whether the directors, both individually and collectively, can and do provide the integrity, experience, judgment, commitment, skills and expertise appropriate for the Company. The Committee shall also consider and assess the independence of directors, including whether a majority of the Board continue to be independent from management in both fact and appearance, as well as within the meaning prescribed by the Listing Rules. The results of these reviews shall be provided to the Board for further discussion as appropriate.

- Board Committee Nominations – The Committee, after due consideration of the interests, independence and experience of the individual directors and the independence and experience requirements of the Listing Rules, the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and applicable law, shall recommend to the entire Board annually the chairmanship and membership of each committee. The Committee shall conduct an annual self-evaluation.
- Continuing Education – The Committee shall consider instituting a plan or program for the continuing education of directors.
- Corporate Governance Principles – The Committee shall have the authority to develop a set of corporate governance principles to be applicable to the Company, may periodically review and assess these principles and their application, and may recommend any changes deemed appropriate to the Board for its consideration. Further, the Committee shall periodically review Company policy statements to determine their adherence to the Company’s Code of Conduct.
- Procedures for Information Dissemination – The Committee shall oversee and review the processes and procedures used by the Company to provide information to the Board and its committees. The Committee should consider, among other factors, the reporting channels through which the Board and its committees receive information and the level of access to outside advisors where necessary or appropriate, as well as the procedures for providing accurate, relevant and appropriately detailed information to the Board and its committees on a timely basis.
- Director Compensation – The Committee shall periodically review the compensation paid to non-employee directors for their service on the Board and its committees and recommend any changes considered appropriate to the compensation committee, which in turn can recommend to the full Board for its approval.
- Management Succession – The Committee shall periodically review with the Chief Executive Officer the plans for succession to the offices of the Company’s executive officers and make recommendations to the Board with respect to the selection of appropriate individuals to succeed to these positions.
- Self-Assessment -- The Committee shall review, discuss and assess its own performance at least annually. The Committee shall also periodically review and assess the adequacy of this charter, including the Committee’s role and responsibilities as outlined in this Charter, and shall recommend any proposed changes to the Board for its consideration.
- Reporting to the Board – The Committee, through the Committee chairperson, shall report all material activities of the Committee to the Board from time to time or whenever so requested by the Board.

MEETINGS

The Committee shall hold at least one regular meeting per year and additional meetings, as the Committee deems appropriate.

MINUTES AND REPORTS

Minutes of each meeting shall be kept and distributed to each member of the Committee, members of the Board who are not members of the Committee and the Secretary of the Company (or to the Company's counsel, to the extent there is no Secretary then serving). The Chairperson of the Committee shall report to the Board from time to time or whenever so requested by the Board.
