

Arcturus Therapeutics Appoints Four New Directors and Reaches Settlement Agreement with Founder Joseph E. Payne

May 29, 2018

SAN DIEGO, May 29, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Arcturus Therapeutics Ltd. (NASDAQ:ARCT) ("Arcturus" or the "Company"), a leading RNA medicines company, today announced that, as part of a settlement agreement, it has appointed four new independent directors, Dr. Peter Farrell, Mr. Andrew Sassine, Mr. James Barlow and Dr. Magda Marquet, to its Board, effective as of May 27, 2018. In connection with these appointments, Dr. Stuart Collinson, Mr. Daniel Geffken, Dr. David Shapiro, and Mr. Craig Willett have resigned from the Board.

Other key terms of the settlement agreement include mutual releases of all parties and the agreement by the Company and Joseph E. Payne to terminate all pending litigation. The settlement agreement will be included as an exhibit to the Company's Current Report on Form 6-K, which will be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and, upon filing, can be accessed at www.sec.gov.

"We are pleased to have come together to reach this very positive outcome that allows Arcturus to move forward, focused on creating substantial value for all shareholders," said Mr. Payne. "We warmly appreciate the continued support from our shareholders, and the encouragement to reach an amicable resolution through this agreement. The Company has accomplished a great deal in the last five years, and I'm confident that with the strong leadership of the board and management team, the best days are ahead for Arcturus."

The settlement was approved on May 28, 2018 by the Israeli District Court.

The Company would like to acknowledge Dr. Collinson, Mr. Geffken, Dr. Shapiro and Mr. Willett for their substantial contributions to the Company and wish them success.
